Politics--The Reciprocity Idea--
Personal Notes.

Chairman of the House says that the bill reported favorably to abolish commerce with the pirates cannot be called up in the House until the Cuban resolutions are disposed of, and, as the latter cannot be reached until the sundry civil appropriation bill now under discussion, is passed, it may be late in the week before the pirates bill comes up. It is understood here that a committee, or committees, of the boards of trade and business-men's associations of Norfolk and Portsmouth will be here this week to urge the Virginia delegation to vote against the bill, as they are supposed to be familiar with everything connected with pirates; it is believed their influence will be felt not only in the Virginia delegation, but in that from other States.

It is a fact that this peculiar legislation, which is local in its character, should be left to the States, which are perfectly competent to deal with such matters. There is no doubt that a strong fight will be made in behalf of General Bradley T. Johnson, who has been on a visit to his home in Baltimore, passed through this evening on his way to Richmond.

Frederick Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury, N. C., is in the city, stopping at the Raleigh.

Senator Fritthard, who returned from North Carolina this evening, said there was no truth in the rumor that an agreement had been entered into between a member of the governor's cabinet to the effect that in the event of a tie between the two candidates for the presidency, the South should have two cabinet positions in preference to one of them.

The rumored here to-night that a resolution will be made at St. Asaph, Va., to-morrow, with a view to testing the constitutionality of the Maunin law.
